Romans 6:4

We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.

Abundant Harvest Meal Ministry

This ministry aims to support individuals in our congregation by offering home-cooked meals for up to two weeks when they require assistance. Circumstances can include but are not limited to, illness/injury, a new baby, moving, etc. This is a very tangible way to express God's love to our brothers and sisters in Christ.

This ministry will be led by Brigid Newman

PASTOR CAL'S CORNER

Dear Friends,

Several years ago, my dad and mom were regularly attending services in Norwich. One day I asked my dad if he wanted to join the church? I've never been one to put pressure on people. He had been attending a few years and I was wondering why he hadn't joined. Was we waiting for an invitation?

He asked me why he should join a church? I had never thought about the question before. I grew up in the church and when I was baptized, I became a member. I joined every church I attended after that. I never really thought about the "Why".

When I met with him a few days later I had come up with four reasons why someone should join a church.

- First, if someone truly feels God is calling them to attend and get involved in a local church, then it is natural to want to belong.
- Second, if you believe in the ministry of that congregation and you see the hand of God moving there, then joining the church is an affirmation of that belief.
- Third, joining the church allows you to fully participate and grow your spiritual and leadership gifts.
- Finally, by joining the church you are telling the world that you affirm what is happening there are glad to be a part of the ministry.

You can still attend worship, go to Bible studies, volunteer to help with projects, go on mission trips. and give financially without joining the church. Everyone is welcome here. Joining simply tells the world that you want to be a part of God's lifechanging mission in and through the local church. It says a lot in this day and age where people are reluctant to make a commitment to anything.

No church is perfect. Churches, as a rule, are made up of imperfect people. As the Apostle Paul says, "All have sinned..." Yet, we are confessing to the world that Jesus is our Lord and Savior. Together, we look to grow in our faith. We gather to worship and praise God, to encourage each other, and as iron sharpens iron, help each other grow fully into the image of Christ. The church gives us a place to serve God and is a launching pad for our ministry to the community and the world.

I believe God is calling many of you to join us this Spring. If you'd like to be baptized and express your commitment to Christ, or join the church and officially become a member, speak to the pastor. He can tell you how it is done here at Central Baptist. We'd love to welcome you on Palm Sunday, March 24th.

(A Ministry of Central Baptist Church)

Anchor Church is our newly launched outreach ministry designed for young adults and those not affiliated with any church. Board of Trustees

Thank you Paul Georgetti for installing the handrail over the steps from the stage to Fellowship Hall.

Kitchen Progress: Skip Terwilliger and Randy Sargent cut out the very old food warming device that was part of the kitchen counter. This will provide for more much needed shelving under the counter. The unusable dishwasher is being removed and a hot water heater will be installed in its place. Richard DeBernardo is getting estimates for replacing the kitchen flooring.

You might notice that the lights are brighter in certain areas of the church thanks to Pastor Cal and Ray Deptulski.

Treasurer's Report

	December 2023 Actual	December Plan	Jan.- Dec. 2023 Actual	Annual Plan
Total Income	56,740.58	55,826.09	451,419.60	466,363.00
Total Expenses	59,680.40	44,763.86	515,642.95	482,622.89
Net Ordinary Income	(2,939.82)	(11,062.23)	(64,223.35)	(16,259.89)

As CBC closes out the 2023 financial year the net income resulted in a deficit that was more than what was in the annual plan. This deficit was a combination of (3.2%) in reduced income and (6.8%) in additional expenses, as well as leaving nearly $40,000 that allocated to the spending plan in the Trust fund account. A complete review of the 2023 spending plan was used to inform the 2024 spending plan. The generous donations and faithful support of members and friends allows Central Baptist to actively serve our community while also proactively maintaining our church properties. Your continued support is greatly appreciated. Thank you so much!

If you are unable to come to church, we hope that you're watching the live stream services on Facebook. If you miss it, you can search Facebook for the Central Baptist Church of Westerly, RI page and scroll down. It is also available on YouTube, just search for Cal Lord's page.

Here are some easy options for online giving:

- 1 Add CBC's address (16 Elm St Westerly RI 02891) to your bank's Bill Payment site and schedule the bank to mail your check to the church. Add a memo if your gift is for a special cause.
- 2 Text Giving is now available. Message the word "GIVE" to 401-414-4940 from your cellphone and easily send a donation.
- 3 Another option is to visit www.cbwwesterlyri.org, then click on Donations link at the top, or scan this code on your phone to access CBC's online giving app. If your phone's camera can't scan the code, the URL for the app is: <https://app.easytithe.com/app/Giving/cbcw>.

You can give either directly from your bank account or ... (for a higher fee) use a debit/credit card.

The app uses the same security as bank web sites, so your personal information is secure.

Also, it allows you to schedule your donations in advance, so 'once and it's done'!

Please take a look to see how online giving can make giving easier for you!

American for Christ 2024 - Grace upon Grace

The 2024 AFC biblical theme is based on Lamentations 3:22-23 "Because of God's great love, we are not consumed, for God's compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness." God's love for us, even in times of despair, never waves.

The AFC offering supports American Baptist missions in ministries across the United States and Puerto Rico. Donations received provide grants to churches to fund ministry initiatives such as camps, daycare and youth and young adult initiatives, Grants to American Baptist seminaries and colleges, and grants to American Baptist partners training opportunities, funding of learning opportunities that involve travel and housing, repairs, and upgrade to preserve our critical American Baptist spaces. AFC dollars also fund scholarships for which members may apply. 100% of AFC dollars collected support these vital ministries and are not used to fund operations or overhead.

This offering is taken annually in February.
May you consider and feel blessed in your decision to continue the support that is much needed.

Board of Christian Education

During this 2024 Valentine's Day let's remember what it says in 1 John 4:7-12, "Dear friends: let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love."

That being said, our current world is not filled with very much love. Maybe because not enough people know God. This Valentine's Day, and every day, let's share this knowledge of God which we are blessed with. Though, not only with our loved ones whom have already come to know our Lord and his love, but to the many others who don't. Let's share with them what it's like to truly know God and what it's like to live with a heart filled with his love. Let's also encourage them to join us here at Central Baptist Church and experience firsthand what John is talking about in this verse.

This Valentine's Day we don't need chocolate, candy, or gifts because we are lucky enough to be blessed with our Lord's unconditional love. So this year and every year let's share this gift as much as possible instead. Happy Valentine's Day

Living our life connected to God

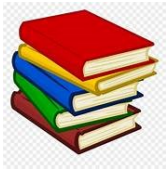

In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus provides a message about the ideal disciple of God and the rewards associated with such discipleship. The Beatitudes, found in Matthew 5:3-12, show how each of us are blessed along with the promise of that blessing if we surrender our life to God.

Mary Fairchild in an article titled "What Are the Beatitudes?" published by Learn Religions, Apr. 5, 2023 and located online at learnreligions.com/what-are-the-beatitudes-701505 paraphrases the Beatitudes in a way that aids our understanding of what Jesus was teaching us about discipleship.

Blessed are those who humbly recognize their need for God, for they will enter into his kingdom. Blessed are those who mourn for their sins, for they shall receive forgiveness and life eternal. Blessed are those who submit to God as Lord, for they will inherit everything he possesses. Blessed are those who show mercy through forgiveness, kindness, and compassion, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are those who have been purified from the inside out, being made clean and holy, for they will see God. Blessed are those who have been reconciled to God through Jesus Christ and bring this same message of reconciliation to others. All who have peace with God are his children. Blessed are those daring enough to openly live for Christ and suffer persecution, for they will receive the kingdom of heaven.

The Beatitudes provide a roadmap for each of us to live our life for God through our savior Jesus Christ. Will this be your roadmap for 2024?

Change Your Words, Change Your Life - by Joyce Meyer

This book helps you understand the power of every word you speak. The author examines the words we use which convey our thoughts and emotions. The topics provide a series of guidelines for making sure our talk is constructive, healthy, healing, and used to achieve good results. At the end of the book is "A Dictionary of God's Word" which provides scripture verses. Joyce Meyer suggests reading the scripture verses aloud as a way to use and claim healing words. She helps us to find a soft place to fall in our everyday lives.

The Persecuted Church

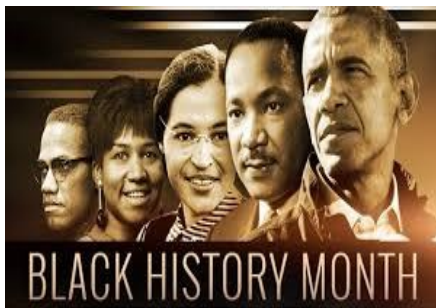

SNAPSHOTS OF PERSECUTION, 2023-24

NICARAGUA: Authorities have detained at least 14 priests, one bishop, and two seminarians since late last month in the country's most recent crackdown on the Roman Catholic Church. It is not clear what their alleged crimes are, although authorities arrested Bishop Isidoro del Carmen Mora Ortega on Dec. 20 after he expressed solidarity with Bishop Rolando Alvarez during a church service. Alvarez, a prominent critic of Nicaraguan President Daniel Ortega, is serving a 26-year prison sentence for treason and other charges.

MAURITANIA: Officials in the Muslim-majority country released at least 15 Christian leaders and their family members by mid-December. They had been arrested weeks earlier after a leaked video showing a baptism ceremony circulated on social media. Christianity is not illegal in Mauritania, although the country's law prohibits citizens from leaving Islam and mandates the death penalty for violators.

NIGERIA: Christmas 2023 was one of the bloodiest in Plateau State, Nigeria as over 200 innocent civilians have been killed, with over 500 wounded and 1,000s displaced. These killings, being meted out by well-armed Fulani Islamic militants (aka: bandits) against rural Christian farmers remain a constant occurrence. In this one State (out of 36) there have been well over 600 deaths in 2023.

Black History Month

February is designated as Black History Month, people everywhere think first about the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Most people know that Dr. King was one of the most prominent Civil Rights Leader, but he was also an American Christian Minister, Activist and Political Philosopher. Dr. Martin Luther King advanced civil rights for people of color in the United States through the use of nonviolent resistance.

This always makes me reflect on my father's (Rev. Joshua A. McClure) oldest brother Edward McClure who also pursued a path of bringing people together through non-violent protest that targeted social change. My Uncle Eddie was a Community Relations Officer with the U.S. Department of Justice. He "creatively used his skills as a cultural analyst, negotiator and bridge builder during the 1970's & 1980's. At a point in his life he had the privilege of meeting Dr. King. They shared many meals, conversations and peaceful protests together.

In thinking about these two great men, my mind and heart goes into reflection about everything that transpired for them and how much they accomplished. It takes just one person to make a change, to make a difference, to become a part of the solution, not the problem. What can we do in this present day to continually learn as Black History is everyone's history? What can we do to "create an atmosphere of mutual respect and foster open and honest dialogues" with people who look, act and sound different from us?

Someone Who Understands

A farmer had some puppies he needed to sell. He painted a sign advertising the pups and set about nailing it to a post on the edge of his yard. As he was driving the last nail into the post, he felt a tug on his overalls.

He looked down into the eyes of a little boy. "Mister," the lad said, "I want to buy one of your puppies." "Well," said the farmer, as he rubbed the sweat off the back of his neck, "these puppies come from fine parents and cost a good deal of money."

The boy thought for a moment. Then, reaching deep into his pocket, he pulled out a handful of change and held it up to the farmer, "I've got thirty-nine cents. Is that enough to take a look?" "Sure," said the farmer. And with that he let out a whistle, "Here, Dolly!" he called.

Out from the doghouse and down the ramp ran Dolly, followed by four little balls of fur. The little boy pressed his face against the chain link fence. His eyes danced with delight. As the dogs came up to the fence, the little boy noticed something else stirring inside the doghouse. Another little ball appeared; slowly and awkwardly, the little pup began hobbling toward the others, doing its best to catch up.

I want that one," the little boy said, pointing to the runt. The farmer knelt down at the boy's side and said, "Son, you don't want that puppy. He will never be able to run and play with you like these other dogs would" At that, the little boy stepped back from the fence, reached down, and began rolling up one leg of his trousers. In doing so he revealed a steel brace running down both sides of his leg, attached to a specially-made shoe.

Looking back up at the farmer, he said, "You see, sir, I don't run too well myself, and he will need someone who understands."

FAITH AND DOUBT

Doubt sees the obstacles,
Faith see the way;
Doubt sees the blackest night,
Faith sees the day;
Doubt dreads to take a step,
Faith soars on high;
Doubt questions, "Who believes"
Faith answers, "I!"

You Are Often In My Thoughts

Love is a command
That Christians are called to do;
Our Lord says "Love your God,
And love your neighbor, too."

Some people are easy to love;
They are human rays of sun;
They light up every life,
And encourage everyone.

You are in that group,
So I sincerely want to say:
You are often in my thoughts;
Happy Valentine's Day!
